Kinsale, November 2.

THE 29th of October about 50 Leagues Westward of the Cape, Her Majesty's Ship the Chatham took a Privateer of 16 Guns and 85 Men, call'd the Dutches of Maine John Imont Captain; and has brought her in hither; the Crew were put on shore yesterday.

Falmouth, Nov. 9. The 17th instant arriv'd here the King William Pacquet-Boat in 49 days from Jamaica, William Smith Commander. Yesterday came in here the Prince Pacquet-Boat in seven days from Lisbon, Zachary Rogers Commander, by which we hear that Sir John Lake is sail'd from Lisbon for Gibraltar with a Squadron of above 20 English and Dutch Ships of War. This day sail'd for Lisbon the Alliance Pacquet-Boat, John Green Commander, and the Betty Galley, Renatus Curtis Master, for Oporto.

Plymouth, Nov. 10. The 8th instant sail'd Her Majesty's Ship the Loo for Spithead; and the same day came in the Phoenix of and from Fowey, John Step Master, laden with Corn bound for Lisbon. Came in also the Zealandia, a Flushing Privateer of 24 Guns, which brought in with her a French Privateer call'd, The Young Man of St. Maloes, which had lately taken and carried into St. Maloes three English Merchant Ships, viz. two from the West-Indies and one from Guinea. This day arriv'd here Her Majesty's Ships the Deptford and Rochester from Ireland, and under their Convoy the Lyon, Joseph Green Master, the Owner's Adventure Michael Staples Master, the Samuel and James Richard Holland Master, all three from Barbadoes; the Miss Moppy, Thomas Jackson Master, from Nevis; the Alexander Galley, Captain Joshua Winter Commander, from the East-Indies; the Major, Richard Mirror Master, from Kinsale; the Samuel, James Boyce Master, from Antegoa; and the Mary, George Beach Master; all of and for London: The Olive-Tree of Biddiford, John Dorrell Master, from Meath; the Two Brothers of Boston, William Arnold Master, from Antegoa; two Dutch Ships for Rotterdam, two more for 'Amsterdam, from Curaçao, and one ditto for Middleburg in Zealand from Curaçao.

Shields, Nov. 10. Yesterday in the Forenoon, sail'd out of this Port about 50 Sail of laden Colliers, and six or seven Ships from Russia, under Convoy of Her Majesty's Ships the Nightingal and Queenborough. So that now we have a clear Harbour, not one great Ship being left, except one of Ipswich, whereof ----- Turner is Master, which in going out ran aground, but since got off again.

Bristol, Nov. 11. Yesterday arriv'd here the Dolphin Frigate Captain Carnaby Commander, and the Mermaid Captain French Commander, both from Guinea to Virginea, and from thence hither. The Commanders say, that there was an Embargo on Ships in Virginea when he left it, so that he was oblig'd to give Bond for his going to New-York to joyn the Convoy; and that for some days past they had very bad Weather, which forc'd them up this Channel.

Portsmouth, Nov. 11. This Evening came in Her Majesty's Ships the Hazardous and Leftoff from Plymouth, and under their Convoy divers Merchant Ships and Coasters. The Charles the Third of and for Amsterdam from Guinea; the Edward and Sarah of Dover, Henry Moor Master, from Plymouth, with Prize Wine, Brandy, &c. the Flower of and from Plymouth, William Mills Master, for London, laden with Wine, Brandy, Prize Goods, &c. the Happy Return of and for London, Thomas Mafon Master, from Faro, laden with Figs, Raisins and Almonds; she was 23 days on her Passage, the Master says, that just before he came from thence, the Mate of Her Majesty's Ship the Lark came thither from Gibraltar and reported, that 7000 of the Enemies had laid Siege to that Place by Land, and that five French Ships of War lay before the Place: But he added, that if the Garrison could but be supplied with Provisions, they would easily deal with the Enemy.

Harwich, Nov. 11. This Morning a Fleet of laden Colliers pass'd by here for the River; The Chatham Prize is sail'd from hence to the Northward a Cruising.

London,
